Sir,

Sub: Madras Shops and Establishments Act--The South Canara Co-operative Employees Co-operative Society Ltd.,--Mangalore--Approval under section 34(2)J) ---Recommended.

The South Cana Co-operative Employees Co-operative Spciety Ltd., Mangalore requests that the Co-operative Society may be approved under section 34(2)(j) of the Madras Shops and Establishments Act 47.

I recommend that the Co-operative Society may be approved under section 34(2)(j) and 40 of the Madras Shops and Establishments Act subject to the following conditions:-

1. No loan shall be granted to a member of the Co-operative Society unless he enters into an agreement with the society and the pay disbursing officer concerned for the payment of the instalments of share capital or loan as the case may be by deduction from his monthly pay.

2. The pay disbursing officer shall deduct the dues payable to the Co-operative Society from the monthly pay of the employee concerned on receipt of a demand certified to be correct by the Secretary or president of the Co-operative Society.

3. The Collections so made from members shall not be shown in the pay bills and the acquittance obtained in the acquittance rolls shall be for the amounts as drawn in the pay bills.

4. The demand and the collections made shall be remitted by the pay disbursing officer to the President or Secretary of the Co-operative Society or any other person authorised in the behalf and acknowledgment obtained.

5. A register shall be supplied to the pay disbursing officer concerned by the Co-operative Society specified above. The register shall show the recoveries made by the Co-operative Society from the salaries of the members and shall contain the following particulars:-

a) Name of the member from whose pay deductions are made.

b) Amount demanded by the Co-operative Society.

c) Amount recovered.

d) Date and manner of remittance to the Co-operative Society.
